THE SNOW SHOE REGION

Seventh Installment of Historical Sketch.

A NEW SETTLEMENT

Organization of Burnside Township—The Discovery or Bituminous Coal.

COMPILED BY JAMES GILLILAND

In 1842 John Lucas opened on a Wallace tract adjoining Valentines & Thomas on the north, under a lease with the Gratzes. Geo. Grahan purchased this tract, and took out coal until he sold to E. C. Humes. Shortly after the completion of the railroad Meese Gunsallis opened the coal on his land, and continues taking out coal to supply a home demand. In 1857 John T. Hoover purchased from Perry John Lucas the coal on his land for the railroad company, and the mines from which the coal is now shipped are on this tract.

SCHOOLS.

The first school house was on the Karthaus road, near Askey's; and after other school houses were erected it was called the "Askey school-house." It was built in pioneer style—of unhewn logs and clapboard roof. After a few families located near the river, another house, similar in its style of architecture, was built for their accommodation. Soon after the erection of the Beech Creek saw mill, when sawed lumber could be had, the Askey pioneer house was removed and a comely building put in its place, with an upper story fitted up for preaching, and it was open to all denominations who desired to occupy it. In 1857, the population having increased, the school room would not accommodate the increased number of scholars; the school board then obtained a lot on the opposite side of the road and erected a larger house—one more in conformity to the modern style of buildings. The two pioneer houses above mentioned were the only schoolhouses until after the commencement of the more active settling of the country. At the present time there are in Snow Shoe township five school houses, and in Burnside three, either of which will compare favorably with the school houses in older districts of the country.

CHURCHES.

For many years the people were deprived of church privileges. A few of the early settlers were Presbyterians, and Dr. Linn, pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, visited them once a year and preached in the Askey school house. On one of the occasions he baptized J. H. Holt, the first child baptized, and the first administration of the ordinance in Snow Shoe. In 1848 the Presbyterians having increased, and in compliance with their request, the Presbytery sent them monthly supplies until they requested to be allowed to supply themselves.

The following are the preachers who, from time to time, filled appointments of the Presbytery: Dr. Linn, Dr. Gibson, Rev. Sem'l Cooper, ——Floyd, ——Fleming, George Elliot, Ward, Ward, Jr., ——Adams, Dr. Hammill, ——Harper, Rev. Galoway, and —— Barnard. Several of those named filled frequent appointments. Rev. Mr. Platt of Bellefonte, was a stated supply until Mr. Collins was settled as pastor. The church was organized in 1852, and called Moshannon. Gilliland & Vandyke gave the church a lot in the village of Moshannon, on which a neat church was erected, costing about $1 500, which was dedicated September 25, 1855, Drs. Linn and Hammill officiating. The principal contributors to the building were Henry Vandyke, Sarah Miles, Jas. Gilliland, John Holt, John and William Baird, and James Marshal. The church extension board contributed $200.

The Rev. B. F. Collins was installed pastor Sept. 4, 1855, Drs. Linn and Gibson officiating. Mr. Collins resigned his charge in 1857, and the church again had stated supplies—Revs. Conklin, Campbell, J. H. Clark and Dr. Prideaux.

Another church was erected, under the superintendence of Mr John Somerville and his son James at the village of Snow Shoe. It was a very neat building, costing $1,780. The principal contributors were the Messrs. Somerville, some members of the Bellefonte and Snow Shoe railroad company, and members of the Presbyterian church at Bellefonte. This and the Moshannon church were consolidated, and now form one ecclesiastical organization. Rev. W. O. Wright has been pastor since 1869.

There are, besides the Presbyterian, three other churches in Snow Shoe township—Methodist Episcopal, Roman Catholic, and Messiah. The latter denomination have also a church in Burnside township.

ROADS.

Peter Ain Karthaus, of Baltimore, being the owner of a large body of mineral and timber lands on the Susquehanna River, in Clearfield county, and desiring to develop them, made a road in 1815, from Milesburg, through Snow Shoe, to the river opposite his lands. This road was laid out without regard to grades, following the Indian path pretty closely, up and down steep hills, to Askey school house, where the path diverged to the south, leaving the route to Karthaus. From this point to the river, being on the summit, there could be no mistake as to grades. The distance from Milesburg to the Susquehanna river is twenty six miles. Whether the township of Boggs assisted in making the road or not, cannot be ascertained from the county records. Karthaus made improvements on his property, built several dwelling houses furnace, grist mill and saw mill, but, being in advance of the times, several years after their erection abandoned his improvements and returned to Baltimore. The place was called Karthaus, and still retains the name.

In 1824, on petition of the citizens of Boggs township, the court appointed qiewers to lay out a road from the Karthaus road, near the Askey school house, to Big Moshannon Creek, at or near where the Indian path crosses the same. The viewers reported a road, which was confirmed by the court. The viewers followed the Indian path, which passed over the highest points. The supervisors worked some in opening the road, but, doubtless because of the steep grades, abandoned the work, and it remained a hunter's path.

In 1828 the Legislature incorporated

Fair Headquarters Opened.

Those who have thought the great Centre County Fair would n't amount to much this fall are beginning to change their minds in the face of the unusual preparations in progress for the event. Heretofore there has always been considerable annoyance to would-be exhibitors by reason of the fact that there was no regular place for them to get needful information. On Monday the large store room on Spring street, next door to James Schofield's saddlery, was opened as headquarters with Mr. L. A. Schaeffer in charge. He will be glad to receive everyone who has anything to exhibit and furnish all the information and help at his command. The public, generally, is invited to call at the headquarters and give any information they may have that will be helpful to the interest of the fair.

A number of exhibits have already been entered and chief among them is one that will be made by L. H. Musser, the implement dealer. He has engaged a space 100x60 and his firms will make such an exhibit of a farm machinery, gasolene engines, etc., all in operation, as has never been seen in Centre county. For this purpose two car loads of the latest improved machines will be shipped direct from the factory for the exhibit. Farmers have always complained that the implement feature has never been complete enough. This year they will have no cause for such comment.

On Monday a force of carpenters and decorators went to work on the buildings and fences so that within another week the grounds will be in the finest condition possible.

A lively interest is being aroused in the competitive township exhibit, which promises to be one of the features of the fair. If your favorite school doesn't get the organ or the charts or the Standard dictionary that are offered as prizes you will be partially responsible for not doing your part.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, to Mr. Charles Larimer, the happy event will take place next Wednesday morning Sept. 20, at eleven o'clock.

TWELVE KILLED IN BIG WRECK!

Horrible Accident on Elevated Railroad.

IN NEW YORK CITY.

Car Pitched Headlong Into the Street a Number of Feet Below.

WAS FILLED WITH PASSENGERS.

New York, Sept. 12.—The death list of Monday's accident on the Ninth avenue elevated railroad, when a car crowded with early morning workers on their way down town pitched headlong into the street, stands at twelve. Three men are in hospitals with fractured skulls. One of these, who as yet remains unidentified at Roosevelt hospital, is unconscious and not expected to live. More than two scores of persons were injured, many of them seriously.

The cause of the accident and the immediate responsibility remain to be settled. The motorman of the wrecked train was a fugitive, while a switchman, conductor and four guards are under arrest. The switchman is charged with manslaughter and the trainmen are held as witnesses. Monday night Coroner Scholer, who has undertaken the work of fixing the blame for the wreck, announced that the switchman's bond had been placed at $5,000 and those of the witnesses at $100 each.

Whatever may have caused the mistake the accident, the worst in the history of the overhead railroads in New York, came when a southbound train on the Ninth avenue line was switched off to the Sixth avenue line to the Fifty-third street junction. The motorman, expecting a clear track on the direct line of Ninth avenue, or disregarding the warning signal that the switch was open, rushed his train along at a high rate of speed. The first car swung around the right angle curve, holding to the rails because of the weight of the train behind. Then the strain became too great. The couplings broke, the second car was whirled about almost end for end and to the horror of those who looked on from below, pitched into the street.

The first indication people on the sidewalk had of the accident was a loud rumbling along the overhead structure. Looking up they saw a shower of sparks, then followed splinters and the sound of splitting timbers. Suddenly the outer guard rail of the railroad structure gave way, a score of bodies were hurled through space and with a deafening crash the cars fell to the street. For an instant it stood fairly on end, then the sides gave way as if they were made of pasteboard, belching out a mass of humanity.

Those passengers who had not jumped from platforms and windows before the plunge came, were thrown into a mass at the forward end of the car. As the injured men and women were struggling to free themselves the heavy front trucks of the third car on the train fell almost in their midst as the car itself jumped partly off the elevated structure and was wedged against a building at the southeast corner of Ninth avenue and Fifty-third street.

Huge crowds were soon on the scene and the first work of the hastily summoned police reserves were directly to clearing a way for the effective rescue of the passengers pinned down by the wreckage. Almost every ambulance in Manhattan was summoned and the injured and dead were hurried away with all speed.

Three alarms of fire brought many engines to the rescue. A slight fire caused by burning insulation was extinguished and the firemen set to work chopping out the dead and injured.

The task was not an easy one, for the heavy car in falling almost completely buried pedestrians in wreckage. At least one was killed outright in this way, while Policemen Harry Aitkens, who was standing directly under the elevated structure is among those most seriously injured.

Eight persons were dead when taken out of the wreck and four died later at hospitals.

CROSSED THE DARK RIVER.

Mrs. Gray, Widow Dr. E. J. Gray, Dies Unexpectedly After an Operation.

Mrs. Eva V. Gray, widow of the late Rev. Edward James Gray, D. D. died suddenly Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock at Williamsport.

Mrs. Gray returned to her home from the seashore about two weeks ago and, while not in the best of health, was not regarded as ill until a week ago. On Wednesday it was determined that an operation was necessary and Thursday afternoon was fixed as the time. Drs. Koser and Donaldson performed the operation, which was not at all a serious one, and it was regarded as a success in every particular. Her respiration and temperature were good and she was rallying nicely when, about ten minutes after the operation was completed, she suddenly ceased to breathe, says the Gazette and Bulletin. Artificial respiration was at once resorted to, but without effect. The thread of life had snapped, she had answered the summons which comes to all and had passed across the dark river to that great reward which is promised those who have lived the pure, upright life in Christ which had always been her.

She was the organizer of the seminary branch of the Woman's Missionary society, which has established the Eva Gray scholarship and is educating a girl in Japan.

She was one of the board of managers of the Home of the Friendless and also of the Y. W. C. A., of which latter she had also been n vice president. She was one of the original members of the Clio club.

Mrs. Gray is survived by two sons, William E. and Edward J., and by two sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Charles S. Bundy, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. E. E. Knapp, John B. Emery and William V. Emery, of this city, and Frank B. Emery of Chicago.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon and was strictly private.

Killed in a Wreck.

Reuben E. Fink, a brakeman on the Pittsburg division, residing at Altoona, was caught beneath the wreckage of several cars and an engine at South Fork Saturday morning and so badly injured that death resulted in the afternoon at the Cambria hospital. Brakeman Fink was born at Hannah Furnace, Centre county, November 20, 1876, and had resided at that place his life except the last four years, when he moved to Altoona. In October 20, 1902, he was married in Bellefonte to Miss Margaret A. Kehoe, of Altoona. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Fink of Hannah Furnace, who survive, with his wife. The following brothers and sisters also survive: John, of Clearfield county; Frederick, of Osceola; David, Asbury, Hiram, Isaac and Sylvester, of Hannah; Mrs. Catherine Naylor, of Tyrone; Miss Jennie Fink, of Tyrone; Mrs. Melvina Watkins, of Axemann. The remains were taken to Hannah on Tuesday morning for interment.

Death of Mrs. Edward Gross.

Sadie, wife of Edward Gross, of Bellefonte, died at her mother's home in Runville, Friday morning at 2 o'clock, of consumption. She had been ailing for some time.

The deceased whose maiden name was Sadie W. D. Friel, was the daughter of Michael and Ellen Friel. Her father is dead but the mother is living at Runville where Mrs. Gross passed away. She was born at Runville and was 23 years of age. On February 4, 1905 she was married to Edward Gross, who survives her with one son, Edward Jr. She also leaves to mourn their loss, her mother, five sisters and one brother, namely, Mrs. Lide Flick, of Bellwood; Mrs. Hannah Kuhn, Mrs. Martha Walker, Mrs. C. Shope, Myrtle and Cornelius, all of Runville.

She was a faithful member of the United Brethren church and the funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house. Interment in the Advent cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Ann Smith.

Mrs. Mary Ann Smith died very suddenly, early Sunday morning, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Newton Jones, of Milesburg, at the advanced age of 79 years. Deceased was a resident of Milesburg most all of her life and was a well known and highly respected woman. For many years she was a member and worker in the Methodist church. Surviving her are three sons and two daughters. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The services were in charge of Rev. Carver assisted by Rev. Lathrop. Interment in Milesburg cemetery.

PEOPLE FLEE!

Terror-Stricken Citizens of Baku Leaving That Doomed City.

INDUSTRIES BURNED.

Balakhan, Sabunto and Nomani Have Been Wiped Ont by the Flames and the Remaining Inhabitants Thrown Into the Raging Fires.

HORRORS WORSE IN OTHER TOWNS.

Baku, Caucasus, Sept. 8—6 p. m.—The situation here last night shows no signs of amelioration. It could hardly be worse.

The terror-stricken inhabitants are fleeing from the city, knowing that the garrison is utterly inadequate to protect them, and, although the worst scenes of fire and massacre have not yet occurred in Baku, itself, none dare think how far the excesses may proceed.

The entire oil and commercial quarters of Balakhan, Sabunto and Nomani, have been wiped out by fire and the inhabitants remaining behind were massacred and thrown into the flames. Bibiebat continues to burn and is threatened with the same fate in Balakhan.

The consulates, banks and administration buildings in Baku are guarded by troops. All of the English residents, and almost all other inhabitants of the better class have boarded ships and gone to sea to escape from danger. All available steamers have been employed for this purpose.

Martial law has been proclaimed in the city. Nobody is allowed on the streets after 8 o'clock at night and inhabitants of houses are held strictly responsible for shots fired from them. Artillery was employed one house from which fired. The walls were breached, was stormed and all the were killed. There is a The whole army of workmen from the burned suburbs has flocked to the city. There is the greatest destitution and measures for transporting the workmen from the city are imperatively necessary.

Reinforcements of troops are arriving daily and it is hoped the authorities will soon have the situation better in hand.

Following is a brief review in sequence of the events of the last six days are witnessed at Baku.

On the afternoon of Saturday last reports began running from mouth to mouth that the Tartars and Armenians were massacreing each other. Immediately there was great alarm and panic prevailed. Stores were closed and windows and doors were barred. Twenty minutes later sounds of rifle firing were heard from the various quarters of the city, and everybody wished to flee, but no one could tell whether safety lay within or without the city. Two hours later patrols of Cossacks and other soldiers armed with rifles, began to arrive from the barracks and these troops immediately engaged the rioters. The firing between the warring factions continued all of Saturday night. On Sunday the situation showed no improvement and firing was in progress all day, the streets being deserted, except for the combatants. No one dared to leave his house during the day. A carriage surrounded by Cossacks conveyed the city authorities to the house of the governor-general. At 8 o'clock Sunday evening, the first reflection on the sky of fire in the "Black Town quarter" was noticed and it was learned that the Nobel oil reserves were burning.

Sunday night was more fearful than the preceding one. Fires broke out in several quarters and the firing of the troops was uninterrupted.

Fires also broke out in the suburbs of the Balakhah and Sabunto. Telephonic communication between Baku and these points was destroyed and it was impossible to ascertain what was burning on Monday morning.

Many of the inhabitants decided to brave the dangers in an effort to leave the city. They went in cabs surrounded by Cossacks to the railroad station and the flight from the city soon become general, everyone who was able to do so, is leaving. By this time provisions had become scarce and prices soaring. On Monday night the burning, shooting, killing and plundering continued and a refinery which was in flames beyond Bibiebat, lit up the sky in that direction. A big wood yard in Baku also caught fire.

Harvest Home services will be held Sunday, the 17th, at 2:30 p. m. Dr. James W. Boal will deliver the anniversary sermon.

THE EXHIBITION.

The exhibits of the products of the farm, garden, orchard and vineyard promises to be equal to that of former years, notwithstanding the limited apple crop.

The exhibits of horses, cattle, sheep and swine will present some of the best breeds and finest farm animals.

The exhibits of poultry will be the largest and finest ever offered at the Grange Fair, upwards of one hundred coops being engaged.

The exhibit of pet animals will embrace fifty Belgian hares, rabbits, ground hogs, coons and guinea pigs, in a special division by themselves.

The exhibits of agricultural implements will embrace plows, harrows, cultivators, mowers, hayrakes, cornplanters, land-rollers, wagons, buggies, gasoline engines, cream separators, mail boxes and nearly every implement used on the farm. Besides all the home manufacturers and dealers, there will be a number of new exhibitors from a distance.

The exhibits of groceries, domestic goods, ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, notions, etc., will occupy all of the available space in the buildings.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

C. M. Gephart, the well known musical instrument dealer of Bellefonte, will have an exhibit of musical instruments.

THE AUDITORIUM.

In last week's issue appeared the program of public meetings and entertainments, which will be carried out in full, giving something of interest every day and evening.

THE CAMP.

The camp has been greatly improved and equipped with new furniture and other conveniences, so that it will be an ideal place to camp, with ample police surveillance giving absolute protection to campers. There will be positively no tents rented to persons of immoral character, so that the camp will be made up of the best people of the community. The association has ample tent accommodation for all those desiring to camp.

Fell from Second Story Window.

J. Fearon Mann, an old and well known citizen, met with an unusual accident Tuesday morning Sept. 5, from which he was fortunate to escape without serious or fatal injury. At an early hour he arose and went to a window on the second floor to remove the screen and in some manner lost his balance and fell to the yard below. The family summoned help and he was assisted to bed and treated by Drs. Parcels and Sweigart. No bones were broken and the only visible injury was a cut on one foot, probably received on a shutter as he fell. He is reported later as resting quietly although somewhat nervous from the effects of the shock to his system, but no serious results are apprehended.—Lewistown Sentinel.

—A Parochial Mission will open in St. Paul's parish Lock Haven today and will continue ten days to be conducted by Rev. Kenzeth MacKenzie, rector of Holy Trinity Memorial church Southport, Conn. This is also in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Parish. It is dated from the time 50 years ago when Mr. W. W. Montgomery, then a young man, drove the second rector of St. John's parish Bellefonte in his sleigh down to Lock Haven where Mr. Walsh conducted the first prayer book service of which there is any record or recollection. Although it is certain that the Rev. G. W. Natt had visited it occasionally in the previous years, yet they date the first organized efforts to establish a parish from the visit of Mr. Walsh and Mr. Montgomery.

SCORES DEAD; 370 KILLED

All Italy Depressed Over the Work Done By Earthquake Shocks.

PROPERTY LOSS GREAT

Scenes of Indiscribable Terror Occurred as the Shock Occurred Early in the Morning---Troops, Engineers and Physicians Were Hur. ried to the Various Towns.

EIGHTEEN VILLAGES DESTROYED.

Rome, Sept. 9.—All Italy is suffering from terrible depression because of the news from the south, where one of the worst earthquakes ever experienced occurred Friday. Although the earthquake was felt all over Calabria and to a certain extent in Sicily, the worst news comes from Pizzo and Montelone and eighteen villages, which are said to have been completely destroyed. According to the latest news received 370 persons have been killed and a great number injured. It is as yet impossible to even estimate the property losses.

The shock was felt at 2:55 o'clock Friday morning. It lasted for eighteen seconds at Satanzaro and soon thereafter was felt at Messina, Reggio, Monteleone, Martirano, Stefaconi, Piscopio, Triparni, Zammora, Cessaniti Naida, Olivadi and other points.

Scenes of indescribable terror ensued. Women aroused from their sleep rushed half clothed into the streets screaming with fear, carrying their babies and dragging along their other children and calling for help on the Madonna and the saints. The men escaped into the open with their families, all calling on their favorite saints for protection. The cafes were taken by assault by the strangely clad crowd, but as daylight broke without a repetition of the earthquake, the crowd gradually melted away until by 8 o'clock, the streets had almost assumed their normal appearance except in the ruined villages where the inhabitants had no homes to go to. The general confusion was added to by the dreadful cries from the jails, where the prisoners were besides themselves with fright and in some cases mutinied, but fortunately all the prisoners were kept within bounds.

Troops, engineers and doctors have been hurried to the scenes of disasters to assist in the work of rescue and salvage. The ministry of the interior sent $4,000 for the relief of the destitute, and Minister of Public Worke. Ferraris left for Galabria Friday evening.

Will You be One of the 400.

Perhaps if the good people of our town know that the Star Course is not seen for money making for it has not been a financial success. Even the company last season left us $10 to make up individually though it was managed in the very strictest economy. When Miss Petrikin left the ground for the purpose of building a hall for educational purposes we felt it laid upon us since we have the hall to at least endeavor to carry out in some small measure the desire of her heart We have provided excellent courses—none better in the field—but much too expensive for the patronage given. A town the size of ours and in the intelligence of the community so well known could and should be glad to encourage an honest effort for the pleasure and educational advantages to their children.

Elderly people as well as the younger have always been considered and as great a variety as the lecture bureau's present has been selected "The Lyceumite" of Chicago "Talent," of Philadelphia magazines devoted exclusively to the notices and criticisms of speakers and companies have been carefully consulted and judiciously drawn from. We make this appeal to you feeling sure if you give the matter of good entertainment a little more thought for your young people must have entertainment of some kind you will be more generous in helping us provide it. We must at least sell 400 course tickets. Our course this year is much more in price than last year; you always want the best; will you be "One of the 400"

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT."

¶Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.

¶A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness.

¶In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and blader affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

Once in a while some one who has traveled to the very edge of the danger line of stomach disease stops just in time to save his health. But the majority of people go across the line, and slight symptoms of indigestion grow to disease of the stomach, involving the other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Indigestion and other forms of stomach "trouble" are perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the whole body by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be paid by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"I have been suffering for about eight years," writes Mrs. H. Pierce, of Millersprings, Ky. "Have had several doctors to treat me—some for female weakness and others for stomach trouble, but received no relief. When I wrote you for advice I was hardly able to work, and you advised me what to do. I took nine bottles, five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' four of 'Favorite Prescription,' also two vials of the 'Pellets.' Dr. Pierce's medicines will do all that you claim for them. Believe I would have been in my grave if I had not taken them."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the [illegible] covers, or 31 stamps for [illegible] bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WITH THE ARMIES

Until News of Peace Was Received the Fighting Was Kept in Readiness.

NO BATTLES FOUGHT

Saturday Afternoon Last a Japanese Commissioner Bearing a White Flag Arrived with a Special Escort, Being the Bearer of a Message from Field Marshal Oyama.

ARRANGING FOR THE ARMISTICE.

Cunshu Pass, Manchuria, Sept. 11—(Monday).—Since news was received that the peace negotiations in Portsmouth were approaching a conclusion, the correspondent of the Associated Press has made a survey of all the Russian positions from Mongolia to headquarters, the object in part being to ascertain the extent to which the efforts making far peace were viewed by the army. The negotiations received no official recognition in the field prior to their successful conclusion, the army keeping in a state of preparedness for battle until the receipt of General Linevitch of a telegram from Emperor Nicholas declaring that the treaty had been signed and that his majesty accepted the condition arrived at. This telegram was officially published in the army newspaper on September 6, and the outlines of the peace conditions were printed in the same publication Saturday

Thousands are daily drinking to the health of President Roosevelt.

Everywhere along the railway where newspapers could be obtained the soldiers eagerly scanned the news and then expressed their joy by singing, which they continued until late into the night, cheering for President Roosevelt.

With the exception of the loss of a captain and two orderlies on the east front within the past two weeks and of nine men in the centre a week ago, there have been no casualties. The cessation of hostilities was preceded only by unimportant reconnaissance involving small parties of scouts. Care has been taken to prevent further loss of life.

Godzyadani, Manchuria, Sept. 11—(Monday).—At 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon a Japanese commission, bearing a white flag and escorted by fifty soldiers, arrived at a post near the railway and handed to the Russian officers who went to meet him a letter from Field Marshal Oyama to General Linevitch congratulating him on the conclusion of peace and begging him to appoint Russian plenipotentiaries to arrange an armistice.

Field Marshal Oyama appointed General Tokoshima as plenipotentiary for his side, the letter announced and he suggested Chakhedzu as the meeting place.

Bright Prospects for the Academy.

It must be gratifying to the many friends of the Academy to learn of the bright prospects for this worthy school for the coming year. Few of our citizens have any idea of the reputation and the popularity of the Academy.

There will be some sixty students representing this school this year in sixteen different colleges and universities. This is a fact that talks with thoughtful and appreciative people. We congratulate the Messrs. Hughes upon the beautiful and attractive condition of the Academy buildings and grounds and for their remarkable success in securing from several states the large and select number of boys who will enter the school at the opening session tomorrow.

The Republican wishes for even greater successes to crown the energetic and untiring efforts that have been put forth in the interes's of the Academy.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They say About Them in Bellefonte, and it is Therefore, Reliable.

Another proof, some more evidence, Bellefonte testimony to swell the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convicting endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

Mrs. Emma J. Davis, of 246 E. Logan St., says: "I have a great deal of confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills, and have already recommended them in a published testimonial in 1897. I told how I had been relieved of kidney complaint and backache which had kept me suffering for years. Doan's Kidney Pills did this for me when other remedies had failed. Whenever I feel any symptom of my old trouble I send to F. Potts Green's drug store for a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and it never requires more than a few doses to get me right.

Best for Children.

Mothers, be careful of the health o your children. Look out for Coughs, Cold, Croup and Whooping Cough. Stop them in time—One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy. Harmless and pleasant. Lawson Elviege, of Barrington, Ill., says he was cured of chronic asthma of long standing by Foleys Honey and Tar. It gives positive relief in all cases of asthma, so this disease, when not completely cured, is robbed of all its terrors by this great remedy. C. M. Parrish.

Always Successful.

When indigestion becomes chronic it is dangerous. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure indigestion and all troubles resulting therefrom, thus preventing Catarrh of the stomach. Dr. Newbrough of League, W. Va., says: "To those suffering from indigestion or sour stomach I would say there is no better remedy than Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have prescribed it for a number of my patients with good success." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Used for Pneumonia.

Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Refuse substitutes. C. M. Parrish.

A New Jersey Editor's Testimonial.

M. T. Lynch, Editor of the Philipsburg, N. J., Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it." C. M. Parrish.

Read!

In the New York Family Story Paper Charlotte May Kingsley's great romance An American Girl; or Hearts and Coronets. The subject deals with the one brought into prominence only lately by Andrew Carnegie's remark that he would not care to have a worthless British Duke marry into his family. Mrs. Kingsley depicts the American Girl true to life with all of a real American girl's abhorrence of being bartered for a title. This splendid serial begins in No. 1654 of The New York Family Story Paper. To enable all to read this fascinating romance we will send you a copy of the paper, containing the opening instalment, free of all charge. Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. FIRST IN THE FIELD.

Just commenced in the New York Family Story paper

or the adventures of a Female Sherlock Holmes a realistic romance founded on fact by Fanny May. You who have been reading the daily papers can easily imagine how the thought came to the author's mind to write this story. Though purely a romance, many of its most sensational and dramatic scenes are based on fact. It is a startling expose of a wicked man's wiles. This realistic romance begins in No. 1644 of THE NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER

It's Dangerous To Doubt.

You have no right to doubt a thing that has been tested and found to rest on fact.

Vin-te-na has cured so many people in so many parts of the country that it is really unjust to predict a failure in any case that has gone beyond the power of medicine.

Vin-te-na purifies the blood and makes the nerves strong and steady. It not only cures disease but safeguards the system against every form of germ disease. Most all diseases are rooted in the blood. Vin-te-na cures the very cause of all blood disorders by destroying the impurities in the blood and giving it purity and warmth. Get it and be strong.

EDITORIAL.

As public officials Abram V Miller and John G. Bailey have made a reputation that should insure their re-election by increased majority.

L. E. SWARTZ, the republican candidate for Treasurer, is a hard working farmer and deserves to be elected in preference to Doc. White who does not needt.

HENRY KLINE, of Spring Township, deserves the vote of every Republican in Centre County this fall. He is our candidate for sheriff and he is going to be elected to.

CRYUS F. HALL, of Philipsburg, is our candidate for Recorder and a more deserving man was never placed on a ticket by either party in Centre County.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin on "The Hairworm in Cabbage." Now for a new line of cabbage "Dandruff-cure" advertising.

"Is municipal dishonesty as common in the United States as the newspapers represent?" asks an English exchange. We wish we could assure him it is not.

EARLE C. TUTEN, of Bellefonte, republican candidate for Register, is a young man of sterling qualities and is qualified to fill the position. Every republican in Centre county as well as democrats should turn out in November and see to it that he is elected.—Bituminous Record.

ABRAM V. MILLER, of Spring township, an old soldier of the civil war, and JOHN G. BAILEY, of Ferguson township, two of Centre county's present Commissioners but out for re-election, should have the hearty support of both the Republican and Democratic parties in November, as they have saved the county and the tax payer a nice sum of money while in office. Why make a change?

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE

Laboring Interests of the State Rally Around Plummer.

RECALL HIS PLUCK AS A BOY

Career of the Republican Nominee For State Treasurer Appeals to the Masses.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Sept. 12.

It has been a source of gratification to the friends of J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, to find that on every hand workingmen of Pennsylvania are expressing keen interest in his candidacy.

Mr. Plummer is recognized as a man who has worked his way up from very humble circumstances and who is entitled to the consideration and support of every Pennsylvanian who appreciates worth and merit in a fellow citizen.

What may be termed the "labor vote" is practically solid for Mr. Plummer.

The name of "Plummer" was heard on many lips in the great popular demonstration of Labor Day. Out in Pittsburg, where the labor parade was the largest ever given in that section of the state, many of the leaders in the labor movement are among Mr. Plummer's staunchest supporters.

A Labor Editor's Tribute.

In a special edition of his paper published for Labor Day the editor of the Labor World had this to say about Mr. Plummer:

"In another part of this issue of the Labor World we publish a brief sketch of the career of J. Lee Plummer, Republican candidate for state treasurer of Pennsylvania. The facts of this sketch prove Mr. Plummer to be in truth a remarkable man, both as to mental ability and moral fortitude. His great and creditable success in life shows that he is not such stuff as dreams are made of. He is typical of those immortal Americans who have sprung from the lowly cottage or cabin and rocky paths of ill-requited toil to become great public blessings.

"From a wage worker's viewpoint there is much to be proud of in the early struggles of J. Lee Plummer. He was compelled when at tender years to 'get out and hustle' to support the family. His father had met with a serious accident when on public duty. Young Plummer worked with a will and with hope. He soon displayed marked ability and he became a 'prominent man' before he had attained his majority.

True to the Masses.

"It is natural that such men of talent as Mr. Plummer should reach important public offices of trust. He has been no exception, and to his credit let it be recorded that he has been true to the interests of the masses in the performance of his duty. As chairman of the committee on appropriations, his work exists as a monument to his fidelity to the best interests of the people. His sympathies and efforts were for the poor, the very poor. Doubtless his struggles in early life prompted him unswervingly in this direction. His policy as chairman of the appropriations committee regarding free beds in hospitals and the treatment of the insane poor cannot but win for him the help of the workers for wages. His noble effort to have the state care for consumptives unable to help themselves is another proof of his strong desire to aid and uplift struggling humanity.

"Such men as Mr. Plummer, embodying all the sterling qualities characteristic of the truest Americans afford the very best examples to the sons of the wage workers. Depend upon it, they prove that poverty is not a barrier to success when determination and honesty of purpose are employed. Thus it is that these examples should be encouraged by those who benefit most by them, that is, the workingmen themselves.

"Let the honorable and progressive course of the quondam newsboy be continued. His past gives assurance for the future. He comes from the ranks and is one of the people."

Andrews Is Satisfied.

Republican State Chairman Andrews is entirely satisfied with his reports from the counties, says the Pittsburg Gazette. They indicate the usual "off-year" plurality for J. Lee Plummer, or more. There is no good reason why this should not be so. Mr. Plummer is a man of high character, who has the heartiest support of all Republicans in Blair county, where he resides. He is well qualified for the position to which he aspires. His opponent, Mayor Berry of Chester, is not so well equipped for the place. He is a self-seeking politician, a place hunter, a chronic candidate for office who is willing to be nominee of any party that has a chance of success—Prohibitionist, Free Silverite, by turns—Mr. Berry is anything for an office and not much in one.

Fasten the Ends.

"Fasten the ends" is the motto which the tidy girl hangs over her dressing table. She never suggests a frayed or mussy ribbon, no matter how exquisite its coloring. Even the men are quick to note trifling carelessness in grooming, while the untidy girl is severely criticised by members of her own sex.

Love.

George—Are you quite sure that you really love me? Bessie—Oh, yes; certain of it. I never knew any one that could make me so furiously angry at times!—Exchange.

VETERAN CLUB PICNIC.

Centre County Soldiers Have an Outing.

The Centre County Veteran club held their annual picnic and reunion at Hecla park on Saturday. The day was a perfect one and 1500 people took advantage of the splendid weather to attend the gathering.

There were two bands of music present, namely, the State College band and the Zion band. The meetings were held in the main pavilion and were presided over by General James A. Beaver. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President—James A. Beaver; Vice Presidents, William H. Fry and W. C. Patterson; Secretary, W. H. Musser, assistant secretary, S. B. Miller; Treasurer George M. Boal.

For the place of meeting next year Hunter's park was selected by a vote of 45 to 35.

The treasurer's report showed $1100 in the treasury. A motion was made and carried to make the club's contribution to the monument fund this year $1350.

General Beaver announced that the Soldier's monument would be dedicated in the near future and would contain the names of 3,000 Centre county soldiers.

At 1 p. m. a meeting of the 45th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers was held with a view of publishing a history of the regiment.

At the after dinner meeting of the Veteran's club the principal speaker was Judge W. R. Richards of Steubenville, Jefferson county, Ohio. He was Captain of Co. G, 45th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. Since the war he has been Lieut. Governer of Ohio and is now a judge of a district court in Ohio. He was the honored guest of the day and made an eloquent address to his old comrades.

Other addresses were made by Joel A. Herr, president of the Clinton county Association; Dr. L. M. Holloway and A. A. Hubert of Clinton county; Dr. H. C. Holloway and Col. J. L. Spangler of Bellefonte.

A. A. Hubert of Lock Haven, the youngest soldier who enlisted in the civil war, read a very pretty poem.

The following committees were appointed.

Committee on Officers—Austin Curtin, M. M. Musser, Henry Heaton, T. E. Rover, William Eminhizer, P. H. Haupt.

Place of Meeting—Hiram Thompson, W. S Tate, S. B. Miller, W. H. Fry and Geo. Young.

NINETEEN DEAD IN POWDER EXPLOSION.

Many Scenes at Plant in Connellsville Men Ploughing Debris in Search of Bodies.

Connellsville, Pa., Sept. 11.—The scene of complete devastation in the vicinity of the site of the Rand powder works which were destroyed by an explosion Saturday, beggars description. Men were at work today ploughing over and digging in the debris in the hope of finding more bodies, but only an arm, shoulder, foot or portion of charred bones bould be found now and then, and it is likely that the bodies of the six missing will never be identified.

NINETEEN VICTIMS OF EXPLOSION.

The dead bodies now recognized number twelve, while there are six unidentified, and, adding the little child who was killed by a wagon, the death list numbers nineteen.

The bodies were viewed today by Coroner A. S. Hagan, and the jury impanelled by him. The inquest will held later. Of the injured C. M. Rand, superintendent of the plant, is much better today, though still confined to his room.

THINK EXPLOSION WAS PLANNED.

Some employes of the company believe that the explosion was planned. A man living on the mountain side chanced to be looking in the direction of the plant and saw the first explosion. He says:

"More quickly than I can tell you, the other mills went off one after the other, and I am sure there was not a minute between the first explosion and the last one, showing plainly that fire from one could not have been communicated with the others, as they were from five hundred to fifteen hundred feet apart.

THINK FRICTION WAS CAUSE.

One of the night employes who was at his home the side of the mountain and could look down on the mill, says the fire started in the southeast corner of the plant in the finishing mill, and he thinks it was caused by friction of the machinery.

With their houses wrecked and in many cases members of the family taken away, there was no sleep last night for many of those in the neighborhood. The committee has been hard at work relieving the suffering.

It is estimated that the crowd that visited the scene of the horror yesterday numbered at least 10,000 people.

Russian and Japanese Peace Plenipotentiaries in the Big City.

Boston, Sept. 7.—Both the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries, together with the member of their respective missions, left Boston Wednesday in special trains for New York. Crowds of people had assembled at the South station, and as the trains passed out, that bearing the Russians, about 1 o'clock, and that of the Japanese two hours later, enthusiastic demonstrations occurred. M. Witte responded to the cheers by appearing on the rear platform and making a brief speech through Mr. Rojestvensky. He gave expression to the pleasure which his journey had accorded, his thanks at the cordiality of the greetings and his regret that he must leave so soon.

Baron Komura, with several members of the Japanese mission, visited Harvard university during the day and was entertained at luncheon at the Colonial club in Cambridge. Members of the Harvard corporation and prominent Boston Japanese were present. At the railroad station the Japanese departed amidst cheers from the Americans present and a chorus of "banzais" from a large body of their fellow countrymen.

New York, September 7.—Thousands of persons greeted the Russian peace envoys when they arrived at the Grand Central station Wednesday afternoon at 5:35 o'clock on a special train from Boston. There was a great demonstration when they left the train and hurried to the St. Regis hotel, where they will remain while in this city.

M. Witte, accompanied by Baron de Rosen, walked from the train to the waiting carriages and it was only through great efforts on the part of the police and secret service men that the passage way was cleared. Both envoys smiled and doffed their hats continually at the cheers of the crowd.

M. Witte and Baron de Rosen were readily recognized and men and women pushed their way toward them. The crowd became so great the party was brought to a standstill and everyone wanted to shake hands with the two men. Both grasped many hands as they slowly made their way to the sidewalks.

The Russian plenipotentiaries and the members of their party will be lavishly entertained while in this city. The first of a series of functions in their honor will be given Thursday night, a dinner at the Metropolitan club by Colonel George Harvey. The list of speakers has not yet been completed, but in addition to the guests of honor will contain the names of Secretary of State Elihu Root, General Horace Porter and President Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale.

WOMEN SUFFER NEEDLESS MISERY.

There are hundreds of thousands of women in America suffering from Female Diseases, endangering their lives by doing nothing. If they write to me I will give them the benefit of my extensive experience.---S. B. Hartman, M. D.

IN view of the great multitude of women suffering from some form of female disease and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned gynecologist, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as make application to him during the summer months without charge.

The treatment will be conducted by correspondence.

The medicines prescribed can be obtained at all drug stores.

The Doctor will prescribe all medicines, applications, hygienic and dietary regulations necessary to complete a cure. Furthermore, all correspondence will be held strictly confidential.

Peruna Brought Health and Happiness.

Miss Nellie South, late of Manchester, Eng., writes from 86 Prince Arthur St., Montreal, Can., as follows:

"Peruna has made a wonderful change in my life. It has brought me health and happiness.

"Since my seventeenth year I have had female complaint and irregularities. My general health suffered, I had pains in my back and lower limbs, my eyes were dim, and I became morose and unreasonable.

"Mother sought the advice of our family physician, who prescribed for me, but I grew no better.

"I then read of Peruna and procured a bottle. That one bottle was worth more than all the doctor's medicine I had taken previously.

"I cannot express my gratitude. Peruna has been a great blessing to me."—Nellie South.

Miss Edna Moore, 46 Elm street, Buffalo, N. Y., Secretary East End Literary Association, writes:

"I was a great sufferer from systemic catarrh, was extremely nervous, could not sleep, fainted easily, was very irritable, had a confusion of the senses, and got up in the morning feeling more tired than when I went to bed.

"I was very wretched, but upon taking Peruna I began to improve, and after using the medicine four months, I felt like a new woman and was completely cured."—Edna Moore.

The principal remedy which Dr. Hartman relies upon in curing catarrhal diseases of women is Peruna. Hundreds of women sufferers find Peruna a household necessity.

Miss Angelina Grotten, 305 St. Urbain street, Montreal, Can., writes:

"Having heard Peruna praised so highly induced me to try it for my cold, and pains in the groins with which I had been suffering for months. It took nearly three bottles to cure me, but I consider that was but a short time, as I have often taken doctors' prescriptions for months before I got relief."—Angelina Grotton.

As is well known, Dr. Hartman is the President of the Hartman Sanitarium, an institution which has a department devoted to the treatment of female diseases.

He is thus brought to see thousands of such cases every year, the most of whom return to their homes to be treated by correspondence.

Weak Throats

Ayer's Pills greatly assist in curing. Purely vegetable, gentle.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co. Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MODERN FOOTBALL.

It Comes From the Florentines, Who Got It From Greece.

Did modern football, the Rugby game, travel to England from the Italy of the renaissance and does its history reach back to ancient Greece? A recent writer says: "Probably not more than a few votaries of Rugby football are aware that we have to thank Florentine athletes for the invention of the game and for its introduction into Great Britain. Rugby school was founded somewhere about 1567. It was one of the direct results of what has been called the Florentine or Tuscan fever in England, which set in late in the Italian renaissance. Not only did men of letters come over and settle in England's centers of learning and create others, but many Florentines versed in the theory and practice of polite culture came as well. The game of il calcio came to Florence by way of Greece. Something of the sort had figured among the less important games at Olympia. The principal Florentine ground was the Piazza di Santa Croce, where upon the wall of the Palazzo Giulio Parrigi is still to be seen the disk from which the line dividing the ground was drawn across the open square. The ball was of leather, containing an inflated bladder, and apparently was the exact size, weight and shape of the Rugby ball of today.

"Il calcio consisted of a friendly contest between two equal sides of players called schiera azzura and schiera rossa—blues and reds. The number of players varied according to the size of the ground or the importance of the encounter. In the Piazza di Santa Croce the sides were twenty to twenty-seven strong, while on the public open sports ground at Peretola they totaled as many as sixty each. Originally the players were required to be of noble or gentle blood or such as had gained distinction and rank in the profession of arms. Each man had to be of unblemished reputation and of graceful figure and possessed of accomplished manners.

"In addition to the actual players were presidents, standard bearers, judges, an umpire, pages and other officials, all 'without reproach, worthy of the city and courteous in manner.' The costumes of the players were tight fitting drawers and tunics of silk, with feathered caps, all richly embroidered in gold and silver. Leather shoes were worn. The teams were divided into four classes: Forwards, whose places were near the dividing line and whose work was to keep the ball in play; halfbacks, stationed behind the forwards, in order to return the ball to play; three-quarter backs, who were strong kickers and played straight on the ball, and goal keepers, placed at the flags, or boundary, to stop the ball passing."

Malagasy Etiquette.

A French conjurer many years ago during a performance at the court of Madagascar asked the queen through an interpreter if she would taste a glass of wine. On her refusal the conjurer, with simulated anger, emptied the glass over her, and the contents dropped in the shape of a rose into her majesty's lap. The court functionaries were so indignant at this proceeding that they jumped up from their seats, insisted upon the queen leaving the apartment and charged the performer with high treason. The unfortunate man had to be protected by the native troops from the fury of the populace and was compelled to leave the capital before daybreak.

Fooled.

A regiment of soldiers was drawn up for church parade in the barrack square, but the church was being repaired and could only hold half of them.

"Sergeant-major," shouted the colonel, "tell all the men who don't want to go to church to fall out on the reverse flank."

Of course a large number quickly and gladly availed themselves of the privilege.

"Now, sergeant-major," said the colonel, "dismiss all the men who did not fall out and march the others to church; they need it most."—London Standard.

Lucrezia Borgia.

Lucrezia Borgia was a singularly beautiful woman, with gray eyes and yellow hair. It was said of her that her upper eyelids drooped over more than half the iris, so as to give the eye a languid expression. She had a peculiar trick of looking steadily sideways at those with whom she conversed, and this peculiarity invariably excited distrust in those who observed it. She was singularly gifted in conversation and repartee and could hold her own in any company.

The Average Storm Wave.

The average storm wave is thirty feet in height. The highest storm waves ever measured were between forty-four and forty-eight feet high. The gigantic force of storm waves is shown by the fact that at Skerryvore lighthouse, off the west coast of Scotland, a mass of rock weighing five and a half tons was once hurled to a height of seventy-two feet above the sea level, while a mass weighing thirteen and a half tons was torn from a cliff seventy-four feet high.

The Great Man.

It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after your own, but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.—Emerson.

BRAINS AND DRESS.

The Theory That Good Clothes Are Essential to Success.

"The well dressed woman is always a woman of keen intelligence and brain power," argued a well known society leader at a popular woman's club recently. "No senseless doll," she continued, "knows how to dress. She may don gaudy raiment, spend a fortune on a gown so utterly inappropriate to the occasion that one can only feel an intense pity for her, but no one would ever dream of laying the burden of her sin against good form and good taste at the door of the whole of her sex.

"The woman who dresses well, in conformity with her age, her work and her position in society, choosing neither extreme of the prevailing modes, but, striking a happy medium, is the woman who has brains and uses them to make a good selection from the fashions of the day."

And there is no doubt of the truth of this statement, for it is the well groomed, suitably gowned woman who attains success, whether in business or social life.

The age of the blue stocking has passed, and nowadays the woman who dresses unbecomingly through choice and not for the sake of economy is regarded as either mentally weak or as seeking some eccentric form of self advertisement, which is but another phase of unpardonable vanity.

In the commercial world the dowdy, insignificant woman, even if she has mental ability, is at a discount when compared with the well dressed woman, confident and smiling, with bright capacity written all over her comely person.

The latter has learned an essential fact—that confidence is born of good clothes—and therefore with genuine brain power reasons the necessity of making the most of all her good points.—London Express.

DAINTY PIN TRAY.

Make It of Cardboard or of Heavy Water Color Paper.

From cardboard or heavy water color paper cut a circle a bit larger than a tumbler top, hold it firmly over the tumbler and press into the shape of a little plate by pinching every inch or so bits of the cardboard that extend over the tumbler edge. This gives a little scallop effect. With water colors or gilt paint tint the edge and scatter forgetmenots, violets or stars over the inside, and you have a dainty little pin tray, writes a contributor to Good Housekeeping.

A comb and brush tray can be made in the same manner by pressing the corners into shape over a box cover, book or small meat platter of the desired size. A pretty little puff box can be made by covering with the cardboard one of the pasteboard rolls on which the ribbons are wound, removing one end to be used as a cover. A set of these prettily decorated makes an acceptable gift for a friend who is going to the seashore or mountains for the summer, and as they can be packed perfectly flat they are never left behind for lack of room.

TOILET TIPS.

Don't dry the hands carelessly after washing. Use a soft damask towel or a silk handkerchief and dry thoroughly.

Egg shampoo is made by beating an ounce of water with a raw egg. Massage thoroughly into the scalp and wash the hair without soap.

A little powdered alum thrown into the water in which the hands are bathed will prevent perspiration. This is worth remembering before putting on one's gloves.

A pint of rosewater diluted with a tablespoonful of glycerin forms an excellent preservative for the hands and will keep them smooth and white if applied each time after washing.

Some skins are so fine and dry they will not retain powder, giving the face a shiny appearance. This may be overcome by applying a little oil of sweet almonds rubbed thoroughly into the skin and then a little harmless powder.

A Woman's Work.

A woman has a personal work and duty relating to her own home, and a public work and duty which is also the expansion of that. The woman's work for her own home is to secure its order, comfort and loveliness. The woman's duty as a member of the commonwealth is to assist in the ordering, in the comforting and in the beautiful adornment of the state. What the woman is to be within her gates as the center of order, the balm of distress and the mirror of beauty, that she is also to be without her gates, where order is more difficult, distress more imminent and loveliness more rare.—John Ruskin.

The Dreaded Croup.

A baby attacked by croup is a cause of the utmost alarm to an inexperienced mother. A doctor should be sent for, but meanwhile the mother may wring out flannels in very hot water and place them on the child's throat, changing them often so as to keep them hot. A very small baby may be entirely wrapped up in a blanket wrung out of water as hot as it can be borne. If possible, get a kitchen kettle of boiling water and place it so that the child may inhale the steam from it. The child's breathing will be greatly alleviated by this treatment.

It Helps.

"No, but it isn't necessary that it should. If you have money and want happiness you can afford to go after it."—Houston Post.

WEAK HEARTS

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

The Renewal a Strain.

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic which should avert such serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

Mrs. Hen's Queer Family

A hen one day took it into her head to try to guess the kind of chickens that were going to hatch out of a nest of eggs. She eyed all the eggs proudly as her master placed them in the nest, and then she began to guess.

"There will be a nice snow-white chick to come out of this shell," she said. "And out of this shell will come a pretty dominick. Out of this will come a black chicken, and out of this will come a little brown fellow. Then, out of that egg in the middle will hatch a fine game chicken, whose feathers when he grows up will be red and green and golden and brown and yellow. My! my! what a fine set of chickens I shall have!"

Of course she was very proud, and she just sat around there until the day came when the eggs hatched.

Well, what do you think?

The first thing that sprang out of an egg was a funny little duck. He looked up at the hen and said "Quack, quack!" and wabbled off.

The old hen was very much surprised and disappointed, but her eyes opened wider when out of the next egg hopped a long legged turkey. The turkey said "Gobble, gobble!" and strutted away.

Then another shell opened, and out stepped a guinea chicken, who said "B-r-r-r-r-r!" and skipped out into the barnyard.

The next egg was a large one, and when the shell split open a sad faced gosling stuck his head out.

By this time the old hen was completely bewildered, and when she saw the gosling's head she turned on her heels and ran as fast as she could away from the place. She had never seen so many funny creatures hatched out before, and she said afterward that she never wanted to see them again.

She will know better next time than to count her chickens before they are hatched.—Atlanta Constitution.

O'Brien Potatoes.

What to Eat vouches for the excellence of "O'Brien potatoes," which ought to appeal to lovers of pepper dishes. Cut potatoes in slices and parboil. Butter a baking dish and arrange the potatoes in alternate layers with sliced Jamaica peppers or pimentoes. The canned pimentoes are usually indicated. Sprinkle each layer with a little flour, pepper, salt and bits of butter. Fill up the dish with the liquor from the can, add milk or cream, cover with breadcrumbs and bits of butter and bake.

Live in the Sunshine.

Live in the sunshine, don't live in the gloom;
Carry some gladness the world to illume.

Live in the brightness and take this to heart—
The world will be gayer if you'll do your part.

Live on the housetop, not down in the cell;
Open air Christians live nobly and well.

Live where the joys are and, scorning defeat,
Have a good morrow for all whom you meet.

Live as a victor and triumphing go
Through this queer world beating down every foe.

Live in the sunshine—God meant it for you!
Live as the robins and sing the day through.

—Margaret E. Sangster.

The Rivals.

To Love's low voice she lent a careless ear;
Her hand within his rosy fingers lay.
A chilling weight. She would not turn or hear,
But with averted face went on her way.
But when pale Death, all featureless and grim,
Lifted his bony hand and, beckoning,
Held out his cypress wreath, she followed him,
And Love was left forlorn and wondering
That she who for his bidding would not stay
At Death's first whisper rose and went away.

—Rudyard Kipling.

A WONDERFUL CHILD.

John Stuart Mill Was a Genius at Three Years of Age.

At three years of age John Stuart Mill began the study of Greek, with "arithmetic as an evening relaxation," as Samuel Wellington puts it in the Westminster Review.

At eight he began Latin, Euclid and algebra and had to act as tutor to the younger children. He was a stern and efficient tutor.

At twelve he began scholastic logic and political economy—the latter his main lifework.

At fourteen, while paying a long visit to Sir Samuel Bentham in southern France, he learned French as a relaxation from studying two or three hours before breakfast, five hours between breakfast and dinner and two or three [illegible] during the time master of his own hours and subject to a stern father, he took lessons also in his spare hours in music, singing, dancing, fencing and riding, but never became proficient.

At sixteen Mill could speak in debate with adults with ease and freedom. At eighteen he contributed to the Westminster Review. At twenty-one he was made assistant in the India office and received a large salary for those days.

But Mill was bald at twenty-two. He did not marry until he was forty-five. He himself said: "I never was a boy. It is better to let nature have its own way."

PENROSE AND KNOX

They Stand Well With the President, and Are Working in Harmony.

Washington, July 18.—Members of the Pennsylvania official colony here are still talking about the conference which Senator Knox held with President Roosevelt last week at Oyster Bay. There is no doubt of the fact that Senator Knox is one of the closest men in the country to the president. Roosevelt has great respect for his judgment and it is known that questions of the highest importance were discussed at this conference.

Pennsylvania's two United States senators stand well with the president, and they are working in absolute harmony in looking after the interests of their constituents in the Keystone state.

Senator Penrose, in his last visit to the White House, which was just before the Roosevelt family left on their summer vacation, had a very satisfactory talk with the president, and the latter showed his appreciation of the cordial support of the senior senator from Pennsylvania by giving him two important consular appointments that very day.

One of these places went to Maxwell Kennedy Moorehead, of Pittsburg, who was appointed consul to a desirable post in Canada, and the other was landed by B. F. Chase, former chairman of the Clearfield county Republican committee, who goes to Catania, Italy.

Probably in no other state in the union do the two United States senators work in greater harmony than do Senators Penrose and Knox.

Every now and then reports to the contrary emanate from Philadelphia, but they are absolutely unfounded.

Senator Knox in his recent interview in Pittsburg showed that he is in full sympathy with the Republican organization in Pennsylvania and that he believes that the Republican party is quite competent to manage its own affairs without seeking advice or assistance from Democrats or others who are not good Republicans.

Judge Stewart's Popularity.

"Governor Pennypacker's appointment of Judge John Stewart, of Franklin county, to the vacancy on the state supreme bench gave universal satisfaction to all who have the best interests of the commonwealth at heart," declares the editor of the Meadville (Pa.) Gazette. "Judge Stewart is without doubt one of the very best lawyers in the state. For 17 years he has filled the office of president judge of Franklin county, and his decisions have been reversed by the supreme court a fewer number of times than those of any other common pleas judge in the state. He is a veteran of the civil war, where he served in the 126th regiment, P. V. I. He stands for all that is best in Republicanism, and will receive the full party vote should he be nominated for the full term, as he undoubtedly will be."

A SMOOTH YOUNG SKIN.

The Method by Which One Woman Preserves Her Complexion.

A professional model whose complexion is of the classic type has this to say about her smooth skin and its treatment:

"I suppose I ought to say that I owe my complexion to soap and water; but, to tell the actual truth, neither soap nor water agrees with my skin very well. I seldom wash my face, vulgar as this may sound.

"I am accustomed to taking a cold bath every day, which is a matter of habit. It is good for some people and bad for others, but it agrees perfectly with me. I feel invigorated by it.

"In the natural course of events my face gets its dash of cold water, but otherwise I do not wash it except for a light steaming which it gets once in awhile, say once in ten days or so.

"At night I cover my face thickly with cold cream. I put it on in great layers. I let it remain on for a few minutes and then remove it with a soft cloth. I then apply another thick coating of cold cream, and this I leave on all night. It seems to sink into the pores and to supply the moisture which has been taken out of it during the day.

"You cannot expect to have a smooth young skin unless you use lots of cold cream on your face. You must experiment until you find the right kind of cold cream to use. If glycerin hurts your skin, do not use it. If you cannot stand rose water and alcohol, why, it is best to omit them. Discover the kind of cream you can use and stick to it. That is the way I did."—Brooklyn Eagle.

All Traveling On Sleighs.

Binghamton, N. Y., Nov. 21.—For over a week all traveling in Jackson and Thompson townships, of Susquehanna county, Pa., has been on sleighs, and in many places it was necessary to shovel through drifts four and five feet deep to make the roads passable. The farmers and lumbermen are taking advantage of the early snow to get logs to the mills on sleds.

An Animal Story For Little Folks

Too Fond of Notoriety

There were two little ostriches living on the border of a desert who had become possessed of a great fondness for being among the notables. They wanted people to feel that they moved in the best society. They longed to be seen in company with the celebrated Mr. So-and-so. They always took great pleasure in saying to their friends, "My friend, Mr. Biggest-in-the-Bunch, and I ate gravel together yesterday," or "When I dined with Mrs. Head-in-the-Sand at Castle Cranky-Crow." Every new ostrich on the desert was soon aware that they were sizing him up. Their good parents had warned them of their folly, saying no good would come of it, but they were set in their pride and refused instruction.

One day while walking out for the air they saw coming toward them a new figure in the desert. It was an ostrich of enormous size. He had peculiar feet and legs and carried his head very stiffly.

"It must be General Nincumpoop," said the ostrich.

"Or Major Stick-in-the-mud," said the other.

"At any rate," said both together, "we can't afford to miss his acquaintance." The figure stood nodding its head, and they both advanced toward him.

But when they came close by they grew suspicious, for out from the feathers there came a great black face and two large black hands.

Terrified, they started to run, but it was too late, for behind a tree was an ostrich hunter with a lasso, who soon had them both in his power.

Love of notoriety was their ruin.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

THE HOME DOCTOR.

A good cure for indigestion is a full teaspoonful of glycerin in a little water, to be taken after food.

For tender eyes make an infusion of one handful of cornflowers in a pint of hot water. Let it stand one hour. Strain and use either tepid or cold.

Ointments should always be kept in a cool place, for if the lard becomes rancid serious irritation may result in the case of skin diseases for which they are prescribed.

Cloths wet with alcohol and water or laudanum and water and laid on a hot water bottle will relieve neuralgia when the painful part is steamed over the bottle covered with the cloth.

Boiling vinegar applied as hot as can be borne to the gum and cavity of an aching tooth will allay the pain. Use a bit of absorbent cotton to pack the tooth cavity and apply until relief is obtained.

Athletic Womanhood.

The new woman can take care of herself anywhere; she wants no kisses, nor does she resort to womanish screams in time of peril. She wastes no words, but proceeds to knock the man down. Could all women learn this art of self defense it would doubtless be a very good thing, for the revolver is never where you want it, hatpins are treacherously apt to bend, and no real lady would carry a knife. But our fists we have always with us, and with a few lessons in boxing or jiu jitsu we can feel ourselves equal to all occasions.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Hold Your Head High.

Nobility has difficulty to express itself in a sunken chest. If the knees are bent and seemingly too weak to support the body it is easier for them to shake with fear than if they are straight. Therefore, wives and business girls, stay-at-home misses and engaged lasses, keep your heads up. When the chin is raised, the chest high, courage and hope are indicated. The mind follows. It is true that a woman keeps her head up because she is hopeful; but even if hope is wanting, lift up the head, and it will come the sooner.

Will Vote Straight Ticket.

"Republicans outside of Philadelphia will not be disturbed in their party fidelity by what may occur in that city," says Editor Frank J. Over, of the Hollidaysburg Register. "They will vote the straight ticket as heretofore, and sustain by the usual majorities the policies so necessary to the welfare and prosperity of the country and record a united and emphatic approval of the excellent, capable and patriotic administration of President Roosevelt."

For the Information of the Public and Police Officers and Constables in Particular We Publish the Opinion of the Borough Solicitors on Automobiles.

To the Council:—

Gentlemen:—At your last regular meeting some comment was made to you concerning the rather reckless manner of running automobiles in the borough. And I am asked what actions, if any reference thereto, should be taken by council.

The Act of Assembly approved the 19th day of April A. D. 1905, does not go into effect until the first of January, 1906, with it therefore we have nothing to do at present.

The Act of April 23rd, 1903, is in force and will be until the act mentioned above takes effect. Under this act no Automobile, whether run by gas, steam or electricity, shall be operated in any city, borough, etc., until the same has been registered by the owner or owners in the office of the Prothonotary of one of the counties of the state in the manner provided in the Act, The Act provides then for a certificate of registration * * * * the posting of it and where it shall be posted, etc, etc. * * *

Section five of the Act limits the speed at which any motor-vehicle shall be run in any city or borough at eight miles an hour.

Other sections of this act provide that no Motor-vehicle shall be run on any public highway until the owner shall have procured a license from the treasurer o some one of counties in the commonwealth. Other sections direct how the license shall be exhibited, where a number of vehicles is to be carried, and how the lights are to be placed etc, etc * * *

Section 10. Provides "That it shall be the duty of the constables and Police officers of cities and boroughs and townships to arrest, upon view and without warrant, any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act; and provides that in the event of an arrest for violations of any provisions of the act, if the defendant is unable to give sufficient bail for a hearing or for his appearance to answer at court, the Magistrate before whom he is first taken shall in lieu of such bail hold in custody the motor-vehicle etc." * * *

This act does not provide any penalties which can be imposed by the Justice or Magistrate, but for violating any of the provisions of the act, the person so violating shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction may be fined $100 by the Court or imprisoned in the County Jail 30 days.

If owners of motor-vehicles in the borough do not have them registered and have a certificate such as the act provides for, and have it duly posted; if they do not have a license such as is also provided for in the act and do not have lamps both in front and rear and keep the lights as required; if they do not have bells, or horns or whistles, ring or blow or toot them when approaching a street crossing or turning a corner, or do not stop when signaled, and if they run at greater speed than eight miles an hour within the borough limits they violate the law and for every such violation they are subject to arrest and punishment.

I am of the opinion that for the purpose of enforcing this act, there is no need for an ordinance to be passed in pursuance thereof.

You will note particularly this clause of Section 10. "It shall be the duty of the Constables and Police Officers of the boroughs and cities and townships of this commonwealth to arrest upon view, and without warrant, any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act."

It is the duties of these officers to enforce the several provisions of this act of assembly without further enactment on the part of the Council. They can follow them up and arrest them as soon as they stop, or at any other time and bring them before a Justice or Magistrate. It is my opinion that if the persons, who use, own or run these vehicles are not arrested without a warrant, an information can be made by any person and a warrant issued and the offender arrested. Police officers should be instructed in their duties under the law and then made to enforce it.

A little effort on the part of the owners of Motor-vehicles to comply with the law would add much comfort to many persons while on the streets, and go far to relieve the anxiety of mothers who are under the necessity of sending their children on errands that must take them on the streets. A slowing down when crossings are approached, and especially so when it is the purpose of the driver of one of these machines to turn into another street, would go far to remove the complaints made against the people who use them, and allay the fears that haunt a good many of our citizens by their use upon the street. Apparently the man who drives one of these machines has little regard for the rights of others who are entitled to the use of streets or roads. There is no need to tear along at the rate of 15 or 20 miles an hour on the streets of the borough. Indeed no man should think of exceeding the limit fixed by law and owners of these vehicles should be glad to comply with every provision of the law relating to their use. They have no more or greater right on the streets than any other citizen.

The Act of April 19th, 1905, which becomes effective on the first of next January, contains all the requirements in reference to the running of these vehicles that are in the Act of 1905, with some additional requirements, about license, display of cards, etc, but it is the duty of the owner or owners or operators to comply with these provisions before they begin to use them. The speed limit in boroughs in this act is ten miles an hour. The same provision is contained in this act that is in the Act of 1903, making it the duty of Constables and Police Officers to arrest any person violating the provisions of the act, and any person arrested charged with violating any of the provisions of this act may be fined not less than $10 nor more than $25 to be collected in a summary conviction before a magistrate or Justice of the Peace. The penalties for the second offence are not less than $25 nor more than $100 or imprisonment in Jail for 30 days.

There is no need for any ordinance under this act. Ample provision is made for enforcement of this Act when it goes into office by the Borough authorities, without further enactment.

Though the squirrel season does not open till the first day of October, reports came to us from all over the county of parties who are daily out cracking away at them. In regard to the squirrel law it may be of interests to hunters to know that the number that may be lawfully killed in any one day is limited to six, and any person killing more than that number in one day is liable to a fine of $10 a head for every squirrel so killed in season and $10 a head for every squirrel killed out of season.

Heverly invariably secured the skin not only as a trophy of his prowess but as a means of profit, for he tans them and disposes of them at a fair price.

Centre County C. E. Convention.

The 13th annual convention of the Centre County Christian Endeavors Union convened at Lemont Sept. 6 and 7th in the Presbyterian and Evangelical churches

The whole affair was quite a success, in all 82 delegates were enrolled, though not quite all the 40 societies in the county were represented. Boalsburg took the banner for the largest delegation and State College for the largest delegation in proportion to membership.

Rev. Luther DeYoe, of Philadelphia, was there with his inspiring presence and fluent addresses, one was on "Junior Work," and another was entitled "Great Things." Rev. Kennedy, of Everett, gave a fine address on "The Living Christ" Rev Bergen, of Petersburg, handled the "Quiet Hour" subject, nicely also an address on "The Impelling Motive in the Christian Life," Dr. Boal, Centre Hall, gave a wonderfully helpful talk on "the Bible, its Divisions and how to study it."

Conferences were held on the different lines of work, these was very instructive and were led by Mrs. Carver, of Milesburg and Mrs. Holtzworth, of Unionville

A reception was given after Wednesday evening's session to the whole audience, refreshments were served consisting of cake and ice cream which were delicious

Rev. Carver gave a stirring address on "Young People and the Temperance Reform.

Mr. James Pratt was unanimously reelected for president, but resigned for the purpose of going away to college, this cast quite a gloom over the whole convention, as Mr. Pratt has rendered valuable services, and to get another to fill the office as he has done seemed impossible. However our prayers were answered and James Glenn, a young man of ability, came to the front rather providentially and seemed to be ready to step right in to service, and we anticipate great things from him. Miss Cornelia Dale was chosen first vice president and Irvin Noll second vice president, Nannie Fisher corresponding secretary and Miss Sue Shipley recording secretary. H. G. Ebbs and Mr. Ralston, treasurers.

A few of our speakers were prevented from being there, but others were provided to fill the vacancy, and the convention was one never to be forgotten, our remarkable feature was at the very same place 7 years ago Mr. Pratt was elected president, then quite young and inexperienced and now resigns, for a larger field or a preparation for a broader scope of service for God, a living witness of what C. E. work, will do for the consecrated heart.
